

Finals

Regulation Tossups

(1) New Zealand's Chatham Rise borders one of these features called Hikurangi, which is located near a much larger one of these features named Kermadec. Richards Deep is a location within one of these types of submarine feature, the most notable of which contains Challenger Deep. The lowest point on Earth can be found within, for the point, what type of feature, the deepest of which is the Marianas?

ANSWER: Oceanic Trench

(2) This country's Dulce [[DOOL-cheh]] River drains the Izabal Department, which is home to a Garifuna Community at Livingston. This country that displays two rifles topped by a resplendent quetzal [[KET-zull]] on its flag contains the ancient Maya city of Tikal in its north. For the point, name this Central American country bordered to the east by Belize, and to the north by Mexico.

ANSWER: Republic of Guatemala (accept Republica de Guatemala)

(3) This city was formerly known as Yathrib, and the battles of Uhud and Badr were both fought near this city. This city is the southern terminus of the Hejaz railway where the first Friday Prayers were held at Quba [[KOO-buh]] Mosque. This city is home to the Al-Masjid an-Nabawi, or the Prophet's Mosque, named for Muhammad, who travelled to this city during the Hijra [[HEE-zrah]]. FTP, name this second-holiest city of Islam.

ANSWER: Medina (accept Al Madinah Al Munawwarah)

(4) This island's eastern ports include Bastia and Porto-Vecchio [[port-o VEH-kee-oh]]. This island's highest peak is Monte Cinto, and this island is home to a Ligurian-speaking community at Bonifacio. Ajaccio [[ah-YAH-choh]] is the largest city of this island, which was transferred from the Republic of Genoa to King Louis XV [[the FIFTEENTH]] in 1769. Napoleon was born on, for the point, what largest French island in the Mediterranean?

ANSWER: Corsica (accept Corse; accept Còrsega)

(5) This country contains the self-governing entity of Brcko [[BURCH-kow]], and this country's city of Neum is the only port on its 12 miles of coastline. Attractions in this country's capital include the Zetra Olympic Hall, which hosted events during the 1984 Winter Olympics. This country's city of Mostar is known for its Ottoman-era Old Bridge, which was destroyed in 1993 by Croatian forces. FTP, name this country with its capital at Sarajevo.

ANSWER: Bosnia and Herzegovina (prompt on "Bosnia;" accept Bosna i Hercegovina or BiH)

(6) This city is home to the world's largest seaplane base, which is located at the meeting point of the Knik and Turnagain Arms and the Cook Inlet. That base in this city is located in the same complex as a park which honors victims of the 1964 Good Friday Earthquake that struck this city. This city's airport, the world's fourth-busiest by cargo traffic, was renamed to honor Senator Ted Stevens in 2000. For the point, name this largest city of Alaska.

ANSWER: Anchorage

(7) This sea's shores include the former Portuguese trading outposts of Daman and Calicut. The Kathiawar and Musandam Peninsulas jut into this sea where the dragon blood tree is endemic to Socotra. The Gulf of Aden is the westernmost extent of this sea, which is connected to the Red Sea through the Bab-el-Mandeb. For the point, name this sea between India, Africa, and a namesake peninsula.

ANSWER: Arabian Sea (accept Bahr al-Arab)

(8) An act named for this resource led to the United States claiming Jarvis Island, and that act is the subject of an ongoing dispute between the U.S. and Haiti over Navassa Island. The Confederacy countered Union blockades by harvesting this resource from bats, though it is traditionally sourced from species like the Peruvian booby. Nitrogen, phosphates, and potassium comprise, ftp, what manure-like resource made from bird excrement and used as fertilizer?

ANSWER: Guano (prompt on Bird and/or Bat "Manure," "Fertilizer," or "Excrement" until mentioned; prompt on "Manure," "Fertilizer," or "Excrement" alone before mentioned)

(9) This country's Cap-Vert peninsula contains the African Renaissance Monument, as well as the island of Gorée [[goh-REH]], which was once a slave-trading center. Wolof is the main language of this country that contains the city of Saint-Louis, located southwest of Mauritania. This country is the westernmost African country, and it almost totally encases The Gambia. For the point, identify this country that contains the capital city of Dakar.

ANSWER: Republic of Senegal (accept Republique du Senegal)

(10) PanAm Airlines was founded in this city, the seat of Monroe County. This city was the capital of the Conch Republic, a farcical micronation created as a practical joke in 1982. The Seven Mile Bridge is part of the Overseas Highway that terminates in this city along with US Route 1. The southernmost point of the continental United States is located in, for the point, what city in the Florida Keys?

ANSWER: Key West (accept Cayo Hueso)

(11) This bay is the world's largest by area, and it includes the coastline of Odisha and Andhra Pradesh. The Sentinelese make their home on North Sentinel Island in this bay that also contains the Andaman Islands. For the point, name this bay between India and Myanmar with a name similar to that of a country governed from Dhaka.

ANSWER: Bay of Bengal

(12) This country's northeast contains the Gulf of Hammamet, and its island of Djerba contains the El-Ghriba Synagogue. Much of the Star Wars series was filmed in this country's Tataouine Governorate, known for its Berber cave dwellings. The eastern end of the Atlas Mountains and the ruins of Carthage are contained in, for the point, what North African country between Libya and Algeria?

ANSWER: Republic of Tunisia (accept Al Jumhuriyah at Tunisiyah)

(13) This region's Kolyma Highway was built by laborers who died creating a route from Magadan to Yakutsk. The Ob, Yenisei, and Lena are the three major rivers of this region whose largest port of Vladivostok is the terminus of the world's longest railway. For the point, name this remote region of Russia known for its harsh winters and home to the town of Novosibirsk.

ANSWER: Siberia (accept Sibir Khanate)

(14) The Skylon Tower is an observation area that overlooks this feature. The three major components of this feature are called American, Horseshoe, and Bridal Veil. This feature is fed by a namesake river that forms part of a border with the province of Ontario. A cat belonging to Annie Taylor was one of the first to use a barrel when going over, for the point, what massive series of waterfalls in upstate New York?

ANSWER: Niagara Falls (accept Niagara River before "three major components")

(15) The Amal Movement and Hezbollah are two of this country's recognized political parties. An alliance in this country is named after the date of its Cedar Revolution. Syria and Israel have long exerted control over, for the point, what Middle Eastern country governed from Beirut?

ANSWER: Lebanon (accept Lebanese Republic; accept Al Jumhuriyah al Lubnaniyah)

(16) The late Prince Phillip was born in this country at the villa of Mon Repos [[mon ray-POE]] on the island of Corfu. This country's Peloponnese peninsula is technically made an island by the Corinth Canal, and this country controls an island which is home to the ruins of Knossos. The large island of Crete is controlled by, for the point, what country which is home to Mount Olympus and governed from Athens?

ANSWER: Greece (accept Hellenic Republic or Elliniki Dimokratia; accept Ellas or Ellada)

(17) This country's narrowest portion is on the Isthmus of Kra which separates the Andaman Sea in the west from this country's namesake gulf in the east. This country is known for its strict lese majeste [[lezh muh-ZHEST]] laws, and it formerly acted as a buffer between the British Raj and French Indochina. This country which is home to the island of Phuket [[poo-KET]] was previously known as Siam. For the point, name this country governed from Bangkok.

ANSWER: Kingdom of Thailand (accept Ratcha Anachak Thai or Prathet Thai; accept Gulf of Thailand; accept Siam or Gulf of Siam until mentioned)

(18) This archipelago's island of La Gomera is known for its Silbo language, which incorporates whistles. This archipelago contains the island of La Palma, and it was once the home of the lost Guanches People. The volcano Tiede [[tee-AY-day]] rises above this archipelago's largest and most populous island, Tenerife [[ten-uh-"REEF"]]. For the point, name this Spanish archipelago off the African coast named for a colony of dogs, not colorful birds.

ANSWER: Canary Islands (accept Las Canarias; accept Canaries)

(19) This mountain is the tallest feature on the Hamakua Coast, and it is the second-highest island peak on Earth with a height of over 33,000 feet when measured from its base on the ocean floor. Kailua-Kona is visible from the summit of this mountain, which is 125 feet higher than neighboring Mauna Loa. For the point, name this volcano, Hawaii's highest peak.

ANSWER: Mauna Kea

(20) The first man to deliberately plan this type of journey was Thomas Cavendish. The first underwater type of this journey was completed by the USS Triton as part of Operation Sandblast. The Marianas were termed the "Islands of Thieves" during one of these journeys that began and ended in Seville and inspired Jules Verne. For the point, name this type of journey first completed by the crew of Ferdinand Magellan.

ANSWER: Circumnavigation (accept reasonable equivalents relating the Global Crossing; accept anything that mentions traveling around the globe)

(21) This island's Mataverí International Airport is the world's most remote commercial airport. This island's natives were the frequent target of Peruvian slave raiders, and local names for this island include Isla de Pascua and Rapa Nui. This island can be considered both the westernmost point of South America, and the easternmost point of Polynesia. For the point, name this island owned by Chile, known for its moai [[MOW-"eye"]] statues with large heads.

ANSWER: Easter Island (accept Isla de Pascua or Rapa Nui until mentioned)

(22) This river's source is Lake Tear of the Clouds on Mount Marcy. This river was first observed by Europeans when Giovanni da Verrazzano laid eyes on it in 1524, 85 years before it was spotted by its namesake. The Tappan Zee is the widest point of this river, which is crossed by the Mario Cuomo Bridge and originates in the Adirondack Mountains. For the point, name this river that empties into New York Harbor.

ANSWER: Hudson River

(23) This country's highest peak of Huascarán is the highest point in the Tropics. This country is home to the ancient Nazca Lines, which are known for their portrayal of animals and plants. This country shares Lake Titicaca with Bolivia, and its city of Cusco was the capital of the Inca Empire. For the point, name this country that contains Lima.

ANSWER: Republic of Peru (accept Republica del Peru)

(24) This region which includes cities like Menton and Toulon has been the home of the Grimaldi family for more than 700 years. This European region's westernmost extremity is marked by the Rhône River, and its city of Cannes [{"CAN"}] hosts a world-renowned film festival. Saint-Tropez [{"SAN tro-PAY"}] is a popular tourist destination in, ftp, what French vacation region near the Italian Border, home to Nice [{"NEESE"}]?

ANSWER: French Riviera (accept Riviera after mention of "French;" accept Provence-Alpes-Côte d'Azur)

(25) This country's tourist resorts include locations on the Samana Peninsula and the municipality of La Romana, and it contains the lowest point of any oceanic island at Lake Enriquillo [[en-reh-KEE-yoh]]. This country's highest mountain is Pico Duarte [{"DWARE-tay"}], and it contains the oldest continuously inhabited European settlement in the Americas. Punta Cana and Santo Domingo are located in, for the point, what Caribbean country that occupies Hispaniola's eastern portion?

ANSWER: Dominican Republic (accept Republica Dominicana or DR; accept La Dominicana)

(26) This U.S. state's city of Bentonville is the headquarters of the world's largest company by revenue. This state contains Crater of Diamonds State park, as well as the town of Hope. Bill Clinton was born in this state and grew up in its city of Hot Springs. For the point, name this U.S. state governed from Little Rock.

ANSWER: Arkansas

(27) This city contains the Tuileries [[twee-leh-REE]] Garden and the Luxembourg Garden, which is a short walk from the Panthéon [[PON-tay-on]], a monument in the Latin Quarter that houses the tombs of Voltaire and Louis Braille. The Pont Neuf [[pohn NUHF]] is the oldest bridge of this city that is divided into twenty arrondissements [[ahh-RON-dees-MOHNS]]. For the point, name this city on the River Seine [[SEN]], home to the Arc de Triomphe and Eiffel Tower.

ANSWER: Paris

(28) Meryl Streep won her eighth Academy Award for her role in Evil Angels, which details the disappearance of a baby near this location. The nearby Kata Tjuta rock formations lend their name to the national park also containing this location, which is sacred to the Anangu people. The nearest city to it is Alice Springs. For the point, name this natural landmark that appears red around sunrise or sunset, a large sandstone formation in the Northern Territory of Australia.

ANSWER: Uluru or Ayers Rock

(29) Locals of this island often use its geographical features as references while specifying cardinal directions, with travelling east corresponding to “going Diamond Head”. Its largest airport is named after Daniel K. Inouye, and Kaneohe Bay and Kailua Bay are located off its coast. Dole Plantation, Waikiki Beach, and Pearl Harbour are on, for the point, what American island in the Pacific with capital at Honolulu?

ANSWER: Oahu

(30) Ogurja Ada is the name of the largest island in this body of water, into which the Amu Darya River once flowed. A “summit” involving five countries, the last of which was held in the city of Aktau, is named after this endorheic basin, in which the eruption of a “mud volcano” caused a fire 75 kilometres from Baku in July 2021. For the point, name this salty body of water bordered by countries such as Azerbaijan, Kazakhstan, and Russia, the largest inland sea in the world.

ANSWER: Caspian Sea

EXTRA:

The Sultans Trail follows this body of water until the city of Smederevo. Its starting point is mostly widely considered to be at the confluence of the Brigach and Breg in the Black Forest region. A canal connects it to the Main River, providing a direct waterway between Rotterdam and the Black Sea. Bratislava and Belgrade are two of four capital cities on, for the point, what second-longest river in Europe?

Answer: Danube