

Round 3

---

Regulation Tossups

(1) This country administers the Bismarck Archipelago, which is home to New Britain and New Ireland. This country administers the autonomous region of Bougainville, which is part of the Solomon Islands. Port Moresby is the capital of, for the point, what country that shares a namesake "New" island with Indonesia?

ANSWER: Independent State of Papua New Guinea (accept Papuanigini; accept PNG; do not accept or prompt on "Papua" or "New Guinea" alone)

(2) This city's Octávio Frias de Oliveira Bridge is noted for its two curved tracks supported by one mast. Mirante do Vale is the tallest building in this city that contains the suburb of Santos. This city's Liberdade neighborhood is home to the world's largest Japanese diaspora, and this city is the largest in the southern and western hemispheres. For the point, name this largest city of Brazil.

ANSWER: São Paulo

(3) This city is the world's oldest continuously inhabited national capital, and its Umayyad [[ooh-MY-ud]] Mosque is said to contain the head of John the Baptist. This city, which is visible from Mount Hermon in the Golan Heights, became the largest in its country following the Battle of Aleppo. For the point, name this walled capital of Syria.

ANSWER: Damascus (accept Dimasqa)

(4) This mountain range's northern extension is part of the Novaya Zemlya [[NOH-vuh-yuh ZEM-lee-yuh]] archipelago. The Romanovs were executed on this mountain range's foothills in Yekaterinburg [[yih-KAT-er-in-burg]], and this range is considered part of the boundary between Europe and Asia. For the point, name these mountains that stretch from Kazakhstan to the Arctic Ocean.

ANSWER: Ural Mountains (or Urals)

(5) This territory's largest city is divided by a series of "Peace Walls," and it contains the shipyard that built the RMS Titanic. A collection of hexagonal basalt pillars called the Giant's Causeway in this region is located 35 miles northeast of Derry. The Good Friday Agreement ended a period called The Troubles in, for the point, what constituent region of the United Kingdom that contains Belfast?

ANSWER: Northern Ireland (prompt on "Ulster; prompt on "UK" or "United Kingdom" before mentioned; accept Tuaisceart Éireann or Norlin Airlann; do NOT prompt on "Ireland")

(6) This country's inland sea, Khawr al Udayd, was disputed between the Zayed and Thani families. This country's jagged maroon and white flag is the world's widest. This host of the 2022 FIFA World Cup funds a significant portion of the Al Jazeera Media Network. For the point, name this small Gulf State that has its capital at Doha.

ANSWER: State of Qatar (accept Dawlat Qatar)

(7) A monument honoring this resource was demolished to counter an uprising in Bahrain. One river named for this resource makes up the southern boundary between Louisiana and Mississippi, and another river that bears this name passes by Macau and Shenzhen. The USS Arizona sank in a harbor named for this resource in Honolulu. For the point, name this precious resource produced by oysters.

ANSWER: Pearls

(8) This country controls the remote Cocos Island from Puntarenas [[poon-tah-REH-nahs]] Province. This country's ecotourism industry thrives on the Osa and Nicoya Peninsulas, and this country's northern border is formed by Nicaragua. For the point, name this country that is governed from San Jose and has a Spanish name meaning "Rich Coast."

ANSWER: Republic of Costa Rica (accept Republica de Costa Rica or CR)

(9) This country contains regions like Fezzan and Cyrenaica [[sy-reh-NAY-ih-kah]], and it is indented by the Gulf of Sidra. This country's National Transition Council was announced in 2011 in Benghazi, the site of a 2012 attack on an American consulate. This country formerly sported an all-green flag until the 2011 overthrow of Muammar Gaddafi. For the point, name this North African country governed from Tripoli.

ANSWER: State of Libya (accept Dawiat Libiya)

(10) The Merlion [[MURR-"lion"]], an iconic symbol of this country, is honored in a statue that spouts water into Marina Bay. This polity with a Han Chinese majority contains the Raffles Hotel, and it is the wealthiest member by GDP per Capita in the Association of Southeast Asian Nations. For the point, name this city-state off the southern tip of the Malay Peninsula.

ANSWER: Republic of Singapore

(11) This river's Falcon and Amistad dams are managed by the International Boundary and Water Commission, and its territorial anomalies include the Horcón [[or-KOHN]] Tract, which is now in Tamaulipas [[tam-aw-LEE-pahs]], as well as the Chamizal [[chah-MEE-zahl]] dispute. The Pecos is the longest tributary of this river, which flows past Laredo and Albuquerque. For the point, name this river that forms the Texas-Mexico boundary.

ANSWER: Rio Grande (accept Río Bravo del Norte)

(12) This country's second-largest island is Isla de la Juventud [[hoo-VEN-tood]]. The explosion of the USS Maine in this nation's largest city was the impetus for the Spanish-American War. This former American protectorate leased Guantanamo Bay to the United States as a military base. For the point, name this country governed from Havana and formerly led by Fidel Castro.

ANSWER: Republic of Cuba (accept Republica de Cuba)

(13) This country has a flag with different back and front sides, and it lost 90 percent of its male population in the War of the Triple Alliance. The Gran Chaco occupies 60 percent of this landlocked country where Guarani [[gwah-rah-NEE]] is an official language. The Itaipu [[ee-"TIE"-poo]] Dam on the Paraná [[pah-rah-NAH]] River powers, for the point, what country governed from Asunción [[ah-soon-see-OHN]]?

ANSWER: Republic of Paraguay (accept Republica del Paraguay)

(14) This U.S. state is home to the highest peak east of the Rockies. This state contains a massive Crazy Horse Memorial that has been under construction since 1948 in its Black Hills. This state's cities include Sturgis, which is home to an annual motorcycle rally, as well as Rapid City and Pierre [[PEER]]. For the point, name this U.S. state that contains Mount Rushmore.

ANSWER: South Dakota (accept Dakḥóta itókaga; prompt on "Dakota")

(15) This country's Great Inagua [[ee-NAWG-wah]] Island contains Morton Salt's main facilities, and Andros is the largest island in this country. This country is part of the larger Lucayan Archipelago, and this country's Paradise Island contains the sprawling Atlantis Resort. For the point, name this island country off the southeast coast of Florida with capital at Nassau [[NAH-sauw]].

ANSWER: Commonwealth of The Bahamas

(16) One of this country's UNESCO World Heritage sites includes the Alhambra, and that site is located in this country's region of Granada. Andalusia is part of this country that also contains Valencia. For the point, identify this European country that contains Catalonia, home to the city of Barcelona, as well as Madrid.

ANSWER: Kingdom of Spain (accept Reino de Espana)

(17) Refugees in this country desperately attempted to cling to a plane during a 2021 evacuation at Hamid Karzai International Airport. This country's republic suffered losses at Lashkargah and Kandahar during a 2021 terrorist uprising. For the point, identify this country where the Taliban toppled an Islamic republic in Kabul.

ANSWER: Islamic Republic of Afghanistan (accept Jamhuri-ye Islami-ye Afghanistan)

(18) This ocean's namesake ridge has its highest point on the island of Pico. This ocean's port of Recife [[reh-SEE-fee]] is known for its style of Frevo dance, and it contains the Azores and the Faroe Islands. Monrovia and Reykjavik are capitals in, for the point, what ocean that receives the Amazon and Mississippi Rivers?

ANSWER: Atlantic Ocean

(19) The Wakhan [[wuh-KON]] Corridor contains the largest gap between these areas, independently set by locales like Eucla and the Chatham Islands. The Aleutian Archipelago is grouped together in one of these areas, and France has the most of these areas while China only uses one. For the point, name these areas responsible for jet lag, U.S. examples of which include Eastern, Mountain, and Pacific.

ANSWER: Time Zones

(20) This city is home to the smallest congressional district in the Western U.S., as well as the most densely populated county outside of New York. This city's Embarcadero waterfront stretches from Oracle Park to Fisherman's Wharf and receives ferries from Alcatraz Island. For the point, name this city in California's Bay Area that includes the iconic Golden Gate Bridge.

ANSWER: San Francisco (accept SF; accept Frisco)

(21) This country, known for its sapphire and vanilla production, contains an "Avenue of the Baobabs." This country is the largest single island nation in the world, and it was formerly known as the Malagasy Republic. Antananarivo is the capital of this country that is famous for its lemur population. For the point, name this island country off the coast of mainland Africa, the namesake of a 2005 Dreamworks film.

ANSWER: Republic of Madagascar (accept Republique de Madagascar or Repoblikan'i Madagasikara)

(22) This city located 15 miles from Red Rock Canyon has a downtown area centered on Fremont Street. Two hotels in this city are named after places in northern Italy, those being the Bellagio [[beh-LAH-zhee-oh]] and the Venetian. This seat of Clark County borders Paradise, an unincorporated town that actually contains most of its "Strip." For the point, name this Nevada gambling center.

ANSWER: Las Vegas (accept nicknames like Sin City, City of Lights, and the Entertainment Capital of the World)

(23) The banks of this country's namesake river are the location of the Istana Nurul Iman, the official residence of its head of state. This country contains the water villages of Kampong Ayer, located in the capital of Bandar Seri Begawan. For the point, name this Southeast Asian country known for its wealthy sultanate.

ANSWER: Negara Brunei Darussalam (accept Sultanate of Brunei)

(24) This country is home to the world's shortest commercial flight between Westray and Papa Westray in the Orkney Islands. This country contains the world's oldest golf resort at St Andrews, and its Highlands region contains Loch Ness. A 2014 independence referendum was defeated in, for the point, what constituent country of the United Kingdom that is governed from Edinburgh?

ANSWER: Scotland (accept Scottish Highlands; Alba; prompt on "United Kingdom" or "UK" until mentioned; prompt on "Britain" or "Great Britain;" do not prompt on "England")

(25) Japan threatened to withhold funds from this organization after it preserved documents from the Nanjing Massacre. Israel and the United States are not members of this organization, which helped to save Abu Simbel from flooding, and bodies of water that have received this organization's highest honor include Ha Long Bay. For the point, name this organization that designates World Heritage Sites.

ANSWER: United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (accept UNESCO)

(26) The construction of this project in Sandouping reduced the length of Earth's day by .06 microseconds. In 1956, a poem about this project called "Swimming" was written by Mao Zedong. This project is the world's largest power station. For the point, name this massive dam on the Yangtze River.

ANSWER: Three Gorges Dam

(27) Earthquake-prone areas are present near the Noto Peninsula and Sanriku Coast on this island. The city of Hakodate lies across the Tsugaru Strait from this island, the second-most populated in the world. Two famous roads on it are the Nakasendo and the Tokaido, connecting its country's old capital city to its current one. The Boso Peninsula, Lake Biwa, and city of Nagoya are on, for the point, what island where most events of the Summer Olympics took place in 2021?

ANSWER: Honshu

(28) The Teton Mountains are part of this larger mountain range whose highest point is Mount Elbert. The Athabasca River has its source in this range, whose southernmost reaches extend near the city of Albuquerque (al-buh-kurkee) after passing through areas such as Glacier National Park. The Oregon Trail cut across this range, which is depicted on the state quarter of Colorado. For the point, name this mountain range stretching from north to south in the western part of Canada and the US.

ANSWER: The Rocky Mountains (or Rockies)

(29) This country's highest mountain is Phou Bia, part of the Annamite Range. The Luang Phrabang Range straddles its border with Thailand, while the confluence of the Ruak and Mekong rivers form a tripoint between it, Thailand, and Myanmar. The Khmu and Hmong languages are the second and third most widely spoken ones in, for the point, what land-locked Southeast Asian country with capital at Vientiane?

ANSWER: Laos

(30) The shift in the Philippines' main trading partner from fellow Spanish colony Mexico to Imperial China was the cause of one change to this international standard. The Line Islands in Kiribati are a full 26 hours ahead of US possessions in the Pacific due to being west of this demarcation. The islands of Samoa and American Samoa lie on opposite sides of, for the point, what imaginary boundary between adjacent regions which do not share the same day of the week at any given time?

ANSWER: International Date Line (accept clearly stated equivalent answers)

Extra Questions

The highest point in this country is Ojos del Salado, known for massive salt deposits in its glaciers. LATAM Airlines is headquartered in this country, whose Magallanes Region includes land on Tierra del Fuego, which it shares with Argentina. Easter Island is a possession of this country, in whose north the Atacama Desert is located. For the point, name this long, narrow country running along the west coast of South America.

ANSWER: Chile