Fall League History Bowl - Round 5

First Quarter

(1) An 8 inch tall statue of Mao Zedong was placed at this site by an expeditionary team led by Wang Fuzhou [[WAHNG FOO-ZHOH]] who used the "human ladder" technique to reach it. The 1970 Khumbu Icefall killed various local contractors working to prepare Japanese skier Yūichirō Miura's attempt to ski down this peak. This mountain, also called Sagarmatha, was first summitted by Tenzing Norgay and Sir Edmund Hillary. For ten points, name this Himalayan mountain on the Nepal-China border, the highest point on Earth.

ANSWER: Mount Everest (or Chomolungma; accept Sagarmatha before mentioned; accept specific answers like the Summit of Mount Everest))

(2) Johann Wolfgang Döbereiner [[DUH-buh-"rye"-nuh]] named a set of triads in an early formulation of this display. John Newlands attempted to create this display, which was inspired by the observations of Lothar Meyer. Some members of this diagram were originally prefixed "eka-," and this diagram once contained entries such as coronium and aether. Containing components like hydrogen and helium, for ten points, what diagram, developed by Dmitri Mendeleev [[men-deh-LEY-eff]], organizes the chemical elements?

ANSWER: Periodic Table of Elements

(3) At this event, a preacher became famous for saying "Praise the Lord and pass the ammunition" to rally the spirit of the troops. This attack, codenamed Operation Z, began after one side exclaimed, "Tora! Tora! Tora!" This event resulted in the deaths of over 2,000 servicemen, primarily due to the sinking of both the USS Oklahoma and the USS Arizona. For ten points, name this attack on December 7th, 1941, in which Japan bombed a U.S. naval base in Hawaii.

ANSWER: Attack on Pearl Harbor (accept equivalents mentioning Pearl Harbor; accept Operation Z before mentioned)

(4) Troops preparing to confront this force were told "I have the heart and stomach of a king" by their leader at Tilbury. This force was commanded by the Duke of Medina Sidonia and lost at the Battle of Gravelines [[grahv-LEEN]]. Sir Francis Drake helped defeat this force shortly after he attacked Cádiz to "singe the beard of" its nation's ruler, Philip II. For ten points, name this fleet of ships sent by Spain in 1588 in an attempt to conquer England.

ANSWER: Spanish Armada (or Grande y Felicísima Armada; accept the Great and Most Fortunate Navy; prompt on "Spanish navy" before "naval" is mentioned)

(5) This politician hired education reformer John Dewey, who suggested switching his country's alphabet to a Latin script. In 1924, this politician formally abolished the last recognized caliph, Abdulmejid II. Following this man's failure to get the League of Nations to annul the Treaty of Sèvres [[SEH-vruh]], this head of the Ankara government launched an invasion of the Greek zone of occupation. The father of modern Turkey was, for ten points, which 20th century politician?

ANSWER: Mustafa Kemal Atatürk (or Mustafa Kemal Pasha; accept Ali Riza oglu Mustafa)

In Operation Northwoods, the Department of Defense proposed intentionally killing immigrants and blaming it on this nation as a false flag. Freedom fighters used the yacht Granma to sail from Mexico to this nation in the hope of overthrowing Fulgencio Batista. The failure of John F. Kennedy to provide air support doomed the exile-led Bay of Pigs invasion of this nation. The 26th of July Movement led by the Castros took control of, for ten points, what nation?

ANSWER: Republic of Cuba (or República de Cuba)

(7) This orator gave the speech "An Undefended Land" to preach the dangers of Nazism to the British people. In the poem "The Rowers," this man used the term "Hun" as a derogatory name for the citizens of the German Empire. This Orientalist author used the historical "Great Game" as the backdrop for his novel Kim. The first English recipient of the Nobel Prize in Literature was, for ten points, what author of The Jungle Book?

ANSWER: Rudyard Kipling (or Joseph Rudyard Kipling)

(8) This man once performed a duet with Condoleezza Rice and the following year performed during a recitation of the names of the dead at Ground Zero on the first anniversary of 9/11. This student of Leonard Rose and Pablo Casals typically plays a 1733 Montagnana [[mon-tan-YAH-nuh]] named "Petunia," though he was also bequeathed the Davidov Stradivarius by Jacqueline du Pré. For ten points, name this Chinese-American classical musician, a world-renowned cellist.

ANSWER: Yo-Yo Ma

(9) This man supposedly diverted an invasion of Britannia to have his army collect seashells along the English Channel. While campaigning with his father, Germanicus, this man earned a nickname related to wearing a child's version of a military outfit. This emperor, who was assassinated by the Praetorian Guard, supposedly tried to make his horse Incitatus [[in-kih-TAH-tuhss]] a Roman consul. For ten points, name this insane successor of Tiberius, whose name translates to "Little Boot."

ANSWER: Caligula (accept Gaius Caesar Augustus Germanicus; prompt on "Little Boot(s)" before mentioned)

(10) While a French colony, this nation's capital of Grand-Bassam was temporarily abandoned after an outbreak of yellow fever in favor of the city of Bingerville. A future president of this nation and leader of the Popular Front, Laurent Gbagbo [[gah-BAHG-boh]], fled in the 1980s due to pressure from Félix Houphouët-Boigny [[oo-FWEH bwah-NEE]]. For ten points, name this West African nation named for a commodity produced by elephants, now illegal in most nations.

ANSWER: Ivory Coast (accept Cote D'Ivoire)

Second Quarter

(1) This writer documented a six-week marine expedition in the Sea of Cortez and later went "In Search of America" in a rented pickup truck with his poodle. This author of Travels with Charley won a Pulitzer Prize for a novel in which Jim Casy is beaten to death after the Joad family travels to California during the Dust Bowl. For ten points, name this American author known for his Depression-era stories of California, including The Grapes of Wrath.

ANSWER: John Steinbeck (or John Ernst Steinbeck, Jr.)

BONUS: Steinbeck considered his magnum opus to be this 1952 novel of the Salinas Valley, which features Caleb and Adam Trask in allegorical roles.

ANSWER: East of Eden

(2) This celebrity served as the public face of the America First Committee, which pressured the government of Franklin D. Roosevelt to remain neutral during the Second World War. This Medal of Honor recipient traveled over 3,000 miles in his personal airplane, The Spirit of St. Louis. For ten points, name this American aviator who did the first non-stop, solo flight across the Atlantic.

ANSWER: Charles Lindbergh (or Charles Augustus Lindbergh)

BONUS: While on a tour of Germany, Lindbergh was presented with various medals by this Nazi head of the Luftwaffe [[LOOFT-vah-fah]] who earlier created the Gestapo [[geh-SHTAH-poh]].

ANSWER: Hermann Göring [[GEH-ring]] (or Hermann Wilhelm Göring; be lenient on pronunciation)

(3) One king of these people named Cetshwayo [[ketsh-"WHY"-oh]] had his cause taken up by Lady Florence Dixie after spending two years in exile. Following a victory for these people at Isandlwana [[ee-sahn-JWAH-nah]], a contingent of their soldiers were cornered and defeated at Rorke's Drift. The "horn of the buffalo" formation was used by a regiment of these people known as the Impi. The conquests of Shaka led to the establishment of an empire of, for ten points, what people in Southern Africa?

ANSWER: Zulu (or amaZulu)

BONUS: At the Battle of Blood River, 500 of these Dutch-descended travelers defeated 15,000 Zulu warriors. They fought a namesake war with the British at the turn of the 20th century.

ANSWER: Boers (accept Afrikaners; accept Voortrekkers; accept Boer War)

(4) The "Praises of Italy" passage is found in a treatise concerning this subject written by Virgil known as the Georgics. Dactylic hexameter is used in another treatise on this subject by Hesiod [[HEH-see-ud]] known as Works and Days, imploring the reader to pray to Demeter. Cato the Elder describes the virtues of animal husbandry and plowing, both subsets of, for ten points, what discipline in his work, De Agricultura?

ANSWER: Farming (accept Agriculture before "de Agricultura" is mentioned; accept husbandry before mentioned)

BONUS: Virgil also wrote about what Trojan prince who fled to mainland Italy and settled the region of Latium [[LAY-shee-um]]?

ANSWER: Aeneas [[ih-NEE-us]] (accept The Aeneid)

(5) This god is commonly depicted with Ganga [[GUNG-guh]] flowing from his matted hair and with a third eye that he used to destroy the god of love, Kama. This god beheaded his wife's son and guard before giving him the head of an elephant. This father of Kartikeya [[kartih-KEH-yah]] and Ganesh [[gah-NESH]] is the husband of Parvati. For ten points, name this Hindu god of destruction, who makes up the Trimurti with Brahma and Vishnu.

ANSWER: Shiva (accept Siva; Shiv; or Siv; accept Rudra)

BONUS: Shiva is considered the "great" one of these people. This term also denotes someone who practices Yoga.

ANSWER: Yogis (or Yogini)

(6) A Soviet Republic based in this city collapsed after its leader, Eugen Leviné [[leh-vee-NEH]], was shot in Stadelheim [[SHTAH-del-hime]] Prison. A conference named for this city resulted in Nazi Germany receiving the Sudetenland from Czechoslovakia. The SA and Adolf Hitler led the "Beer Hall Putsch" in this city. For ten points, name this southern German city, which is the capital and largest city of Bavaria.

ANSWER: Munich (accept München; or Minga)

BONUS: The Beer Hall Putsch was an attempt to overthrow what interwar German government, led at the time by Friedrich Ebert [[EH-buht]]?

ANSWER: Weimar [[VY-mar]] Government (or Weimarer Republik; prompt on "German Reich" or "Deutsches Reich")

(7) One of these groups named Hispana vanishes from history around 120 AD and is known as the "lost" one of these groups. Marius made these groups permanent standing bodies and professionalized their subcommanders, the centurions. These groups each consisted of over 5000 infantry members and 120 foreign auxilia cavalry during the height of the Empire, at which time there were as many as thirty of them. For ten points, name these highest-level divisions of the Roman army.

ANSWER: Roman Legions (accept Legio; or Legiones)

BONUS: The 17th and 18th legions, which were commanded by Mark Antony, were disbanded after what 31 BC naval victory that secured hegemony for Augustus?

ANSWER: Battle of Actium

[[pah-lee-KLY-tuss]] led an investigation that deposed governor Gaius Suetonius Paulinus [["GUY"-us swee-TOH-nee-us paw-"LIE"-nuss]]. This woman's husband, Prasutagus [[prah-soo-TAY-gus]], originally submitted to vassal status during the conquests of Claudius. With the Trinovantes [[trih-noh-VAN-teez]], this woman's combined tribal army burned down both Eboracum [[eh-BOR-sh-kum]] and Londinium. For ten points, name this queen of the Iceni [["eye"-SEE-nee]] tribe who led Britons in a 1st century revolt against the Roman Empire.

ANSWER: Boudicca (accept Buddug; accept Boadicea))

BONUS: Boudicca's Revolt occurred during the reign of this Julio-Claudian Roman emperor who built the Domus Aurea.

ANSWER: Nero Claudius Caesar Augustus Germanicus

Third Quarter

The categories are:

- 1. Prime Ministers of the United Kingdom
- 2. Renaissance Florence
- 3. Ming Dynasty

Prime Ministers of the United Kingdom

Concerning the British office of Prime Minister (PM), name the...

(1) Conservative PM of the 1980s, dubbed "The Iron Lady."

ANSWER: Margaret Thatcher (or Margaret Hilda Thatcher; or Baroness Thatcher)

(2) Former mayor of London who led the UK during the COVID-19 pandemic.

ANSWER: Boris Johnson (or Alexander Boris de Pfeffel Johnson)

(3) PM who declared "Peace in Our Time" after appeasing Hitler.

ANSWER: (Arthur) Neville Chamberlain

(4) Son of an "Elder" PM who oversaw the end of the American Revolution.

ANSWER: William Pitt the Younger (do not accept "William Pitt the Elder")

(5) Liberal PM who gave the Midlothian Campaign speeches and opposed Disraeli.

ANSWER: William Gladstone (or William Ewart [a]Gladstone)

(6) De facto first PM, in power during the beginning of the War of the Austrian Succession.

ANSWER: Robert Walpole, 1st Earl of Orford

(7) Conservative who ratified the treaty to join the European Union.

ANSWER: John Major

(8) Conservative successor of Churchill who resigned after bungling the Suez Crisis.

ANSWER: Anthony Eden, 1st Earl of Avon (or Robert Anthony Eden)

Renaissance Florence

Concerning the Renaissance in Florence, name the...

(1) Political scientist and writer of The Prince who was tortured and exiled from Florence.

ANSWER: Niccolò Machiavelli (or Niccolò di Bernardo dei Machiavelli)

(2) Banking family, with members like Cosimo and Lorenzo, who ruled Florence.

ANSWER: de' Medici (or House of Medici)

(3) Region in which Florence is located, named for an Italian people of antiquity.

ANSWER: Tuscany (or Toscana; prompt on "Tuscan" or "Etruscan")

(4) 11th century dogmatic split which the 15th century Council of Florence aimed to mend.

ANSWER: Great Schism (or Schism of 1054)

(5) Large-scale burning of fine arts and other objects considered lewd by the followers of Savonarola [[sah-voh-nah-ROH-lah]].

ANSWER: Bonfire of the Vanities (or Falò delle vanità)

(6) Sculptor who won a competition to design the title fixture for the Florence Cathedral's dome.

ANSWER: Filippo Brunelleschi [[broo-nuh-LES-kee]] (accept Pippo)

(7) Revolt of 14th century wool workers which nearly toppled the sitting government.

ANSWER: Ciompi [[chee-AHM-pee]] Revolt

(8) Rival republic on the Arno which was sold to Florence by the Visconti family in 1406.

ANSWER: Republic of Pisa

Ming Dynasty

Concerning the Great Ming, name the...

(1) Nomadic tribe whose Yuan Dynasty was overthrown by the native Ming emperors.

ANSWER: Mongols (or Mongolians)

(2) Northern city, formerly called Dadu, which they established as their capital.

ANSWER: Beijing (or Peking)

(3) Semi-nomadic people group who overthrew them and established the Qing [[CHING]] Dynasty.

ANSWER: Manchus

(4) Eunuch and Chinese admiral who commanded the Ming Treasure fleets.

ANSWER: Zheng He [[ZHUNG HUH]] (or Cheng Ho; accept Ma He)

(5) European religious order for whom Matteo Ricci [[REE-chee]] and Francis Xavier led missions to Ming China.

ANSWER: Jesuits (accept Society of Jesus; or Societas Iesu)

(6) Material mass-produced at the Jingdezhen [[JING-DEH-ZHEN]] kilns for export to Europe.

ANSWER: Ceramics (accept Porcelain; prompt on "pottery" or specific example like "vases")

(7) "Crisis" caused by the capture of the sitting Ming Emperor, Yingzhong, by the Oirats [[OY-RAHTS]].

ANSWER: Tumu Crisis

(8) Isolationist policy which banned non-government-sanctioned sea trade, first instituted by the Hongwu Emperor.

ANSWER: Haijin (accept Biguan Suoguo)

Fourth Quarter

(1) This deity was worshipped in Sparta under an epithet that translates to "Willow-Bound." This deity, dubbed "of the Golden Shaft" was a patron of childbirth despite her personal (+) chastity. Though this goddess's main cult centers were at Brauron [[BRAW-rahn]] and her birthplace of Delos, a temple dedicated to this deity at Ephesus [[eh-FEH-soos]] was one of the Seven (*) Ancient Wonders of the World. For ten points, name this twin sister of Apollo, the Greek goddess of the hunt.

ANSWER: Artemis (accept Diana until "Greek")

This river was originally termed the "River of Good Omens" by Vasco da Gama, though it was quickly re-dubbed the Cuama [[KWAH-muh]]. The Caprivi [[kah-PREE-vee]] Strip in (+) Namibia was created to give the German Empire access to this river during the Scramble for Africa. This river was first charted by David Livingstone, who traversed its course to Victoria Falls. (*) Once occupied by the Mutapa [[moo-TAH-pah]] Empire, for ten points, what fourth-longest river in Africa today provides the border between Zambia and Zimbabwe?

ANSWER: Zambezi River (accept Cuama River before mentioned)

(3) The loser of this battle sent his Imperial Guard to capture La Haye Sainte and Plancenoit [[PLAHN-sen-NWAH]] but was later pushed back by Foot Guards under Sir Peregrine (+) Maitland. After his Prussians were defeated at the Battle of Ligny [[leen-YEE]], two days before this battle, Gebhard von Blücher [[BLOO-kuh]] withdrew north to (*) Wavre [[WAHV]]. For ten points, name this 1815 battle at which the Seventh Coalition led by the Duke of Wellington ensured the final defeat of Napoleon Bonaparte.

ANSWER: Battle of Waterloo (prompt on the "Hundred Days")

(4) One group who performed this art form premiered their first piece, Le Pavillon d'Armide [[luh pah-vee-YOHN dar-MEED]], in Paris in 1909, following it up with Prince Igor, both of which were choreographed by Michel Fokine [[mee-SHEL foh-KEEN]]. (+) Sergei Diaghilev [[de-AH-guh-lef]] founded an influential Russian company known for this art form, music for which included The Firebird and The Rite of Spring by Igor (*) Stravinsky. For ten points, name this art form of performative dance, practiced by Anna Pavlova and Vaslav Nijinsky.

ANSWER: Ballet (accept Ballet Russes)

["pie"-rih-doh-STIG-meen]] Bromide led to this war's namesake "syndrome," a debilitating chronic illness common among U.S. (+) veterans. The end of this war's hostilities have partially been attributed to photos released of the Highway of Death. This month-long war used the codename Desert Storm. The invasion of (*) Kuwait by Iraq triggered, for ten points, what U.S.-led invasion during the George H.W. Bush administration?

ANSWER: First Persian Gulf War (accept Gulf War Syndrome; accept First Iraq War before mentioned; accept Desert Storm before mentioned)

The prevalence of these people led the citizens of Sarawak to crown the "White Rajah" James Brooke after he agreed to drive them out of the nation. Until their decline after the Treaty of Gyehae [["guy"-HAY]], a group of these people called the Wokou (+) plagued the Ming Dynasty. Julius Caesar was captured and ransomed by Cilician [[sih-LIH-shun]] men in this profession, whom he later crucified for their crimes. (*) For ten points, name this profession characterized by robbery and extortion via ship.

ANSWER: Pirates (accept Privateers; or Buccaneers)

[7] In this province, the Solidarity Coalition led by Jack Munro led a general strike in the early 1980s made up of 100,000 strikers. The Tsimshian [[sihm-SHE-ahn]] people of this province built totem poles and hosted potlach [[POT-latch]] (+) ceremonies. The term "Fifty-Four Forty or Fight" concerned the border dispute between the Oregon territory and this modern province. Royal Navy officer George Vancouver names (*) the largest city of, for ten points, what Canadian province?

ANSWER: British Columbia (accept BC)

(8) Using the codename Bolek, this man likely informed on his fellow workingmen regarding dissident matters such as listening to Radio Free Europe. This electrician led a strike of (+) 17,000 workers at the Lenin Shipyards in Gdansk [[guh-DANSK]]. This man achieved semi-free elections following the Round Table Agreements held in Warsaw. The leader of the trade union (*) Solidarity was, for ten points, what first president of a democratic Poland?

ANSWER: Lech Wałesa [[LEK vah-WEHN-sah]] (be lenient on pronunciation)

Extra Question

(1) This election year's Republican candidate was the subject of a critical essay by Richard J. Hofstadter titled "The Paranoid Style in American Politics." A candidate in this election year used the "Daisy Girl" (+) ad to warn that his opponent would lead the U.S. into a nuclear war with the USSR. The modern conservative movement found a candidate in Barry (*) Goldwater, who won several Southern states in, for ten points, which election cycle won by the incumbent Democrat, Lyndon B. Johnson?

ANSWER: 1964 United States presidential election

BONUS: This elite force of heavy infantry served as palace guards to the Persian king. This group received their name not due to a belief that they lived forever but rather due to a description by Herodotus who said this force never fell below 10,000 men under arms.

ANSWER: Immortals (accept Athánatoi; or Anauša [note: There is no known Persian term for the "Immortals" since the description originally derives from Herodotus])