

Round 4

First Quarter

(1) The Soviet Union boycotted this event in favor of their own Spartakiad to be hosted in Barcelona the following year. The reporters of Der Stürmer [[SHTIR-muh]] were banned from the host city during this procession. Prior to this event, Adidas founder Adolf Dassler convinced Jesse Owens to wear his shoes prior to the Long Jump competition. For ten points, name this 1936 athletic event hosted by the government of Adolf Hitler in the German capital.

ANSWER: Berlin Olympics (accept 1936 Olympics before "1936"; prompt on "Nazi Olympics")

(2) This man's work on animal respiration utilized his friend and human guinea pig Armand Séguin [[seh-GWEEN]]. This scientist disproved the historically popular phlogiston [[FLOH-jis-tahn]] theory by showing that nothing new is produced by combustion. This man formulated the law of conservation of mass and named oxygen and hydrogen before being executed during the French Revolution. For ten points, name this French scientist who is considered the father of modern chemistry.

ANSWER: Antoine Lavoisier (or Antoine-Laurent de Lavoisier)

(3) A follower of the priest Iliodor [[ill-YOH-dor]] attempted to assassinate this man by stabbing him in the stomach. Another attempted assassination of this man involved feeding him cyanide-laced cake before he was finally killed with a bullet to the head by Felix Yusupov. This holy man claimed to have cured Alexei Romanov of hemophilia. For ten points, name this Russian mystic whose influence grew due to his closeness with Empress Alexandra.

ANSWER: Grigori Yefimovich Rasputin

(4) The Romano-British syncretized this deity with the Celtic figure Sulis, forming a duo who protected over the thermal waters of Bath. This goddess, whom the Etruscans showed uncharacteristically hurling lightning bolts, was often depicted in fresco reliefs with a lowered sword as opposed to her more vicious parallel, Mars. For ten points, which Roman goddess of wisdom and war's Greek analogue is Athena?

ANSWER: Minerva (accept Menrva; do not accept "Athena")

(5) Over 300 eunuchs and maids died in this city's Old Summer Palace following its intentional burning by the British under Lord Elgin. Prince Gong signed an 1860 treaty named for this city, ceding parts of Manchuria to Russia and leasing Kowloon to Britain. Following the Northern Expedition, central authority was moved south from this city to Nanjing. The Forbidden City is located in, for ten points, what modern capital of China?

ANSWER: Beijing (or Beiping; accept Peking)

(6) In Islamic tradition, this figure will kill the malevolent ad-Dajjal [[ahd-dah-JAHL]] and both Gog and Magog during the Second Coming. The Cathedral of Turin houses a shroud supposedly bearing the face of this man, whose execution apparatus was split into several pieces that are considered relics in the Christian church. For ten points, name this holy figure who was executed under Roman law in Judea, being nailed to the True Cross.

ANSWER: Jesus Christ (accept either underlined portion; accept Isa ibn Maryam; or Yeshua bar Joseph)

(7) A congratulatory email sent to this man was allegedly one of only two emails sent by Bill Clinton during his presidency. Though not John McCain, this man's acceptance of a $200,000 loan made him a member of the Keating Five. A record three-and-a-half hour flight from L.A. to New York was conducted by this man before being chosen as a member of the Mercury Seven. The lone occupant on a five-hour flight in 1962 aboard Friendship 7, for ten points, who was this astronaut, the first American to orbit the Earth?

ANSWER: John Glenn (or John Herschel Glenn Jr.)

(8) In his treatise, Thoughts on Government, this man wrote that "Politics is the Science of human happiness." As a member of the Second Continental Congress, this man predicted that American independence would be celebrated on July 2nd. As a lawyer, this man successfully defended Thomas Preston and the other British soldiers who perpetrated the Boston Massacre. For ten points, name this Massachusetts statesman who also served as the first vice president and second president of the United States.

ANSWER: John Adams (do not accept "John Quincy Adams")

(9) Near the Syr Darya, this empire's forces burned their entire baggage train during the "Day of Thirst" while being harassed by the Turgesh Khanate. Forces of this dynasty's Yazid I killed Husayn ibn Ali to win the Battle of Karbala, sparking the Second Fitna. This dynasty fled to Iberia after being overthrown by the Abbasid dynasty. For ten points, name this successor of the "Rightly Guided" caliphs, an empire which conquered much of North Africa and Western Asia.

ANSWER: Umayyad Caliphate (accept al-Khilāfah al-'Umayyāh)

(10) Though Milton Obote [[oh-BOH-teh]] was restored to this country's presidency after a brief war with Tanzania, he did not restore its traditional kingdoms such as Ankole [[ahn-KOH-leh]]. Obote's predecessor proclaimed himself Conqueror of the British Empire and expelled this country's Asian population while declaring himself King of Scotland. During that dictator's rule, Israel rescued over 100 hostages from this country in Operation Entebbe [[en-TEH-beh]]. For ten points, name this country, once ruled by Idi Amin.

ANSWER: Republic of Uganda

Second Quarter

(1) In 2021, the U.S. Supreme Court ruled in favor of two people of this profession who argued workers could not unionize on their property. After the U.S. Civil War, people of this profession formed the Grange advocacy group. Thomas Jefferson called people with this profession "the chosen people of God," and this profession was one of the most severely affected by the Dust Bowl. For ten points, name this profession involved in growing crops and raising animals for consumption.

ANSWER: Farmers (accept word forms; accept Agriculturist; accept Horticulturist; prompt on "rancher" or "gardener")

BONUS: This sagely book of the Bible, traditionally written by King Solomon, provides some advice to farmers, saying, "Those too lazy to plow in the right season will have no food at the harvest."

ANSWER: Book of Proverbs (accept Proverbs of Solomon; accept Míshlê Shlomoh)

(2) One account of this conflict ends at the Battle of Ascalon, where Godfrey of Bouillon [[boo-YOHN]] drove off the army of the Fatimids. Seljuk leader Kilij [[kee-LEE]] Arslan's lightly armored horse archers were defeated in this conflict by a combined Italo-Norman force at Dorylaeum [[DOR-ee-LAY-uhm]]. A Byzantine request for aid led to, for ten points, what 11th century war to recapture of the Holy Land from Muslim control?

ANSWER: First Crusade (accept Princes' Crusade; prompt on "Crusade" or "the Crusades"; do not accept "The People's Crusade")

BONUS: The First Crusade was initiated by this Frenchman who reigned as Pope from 1088 to 1099. He is best known for possibly being the source of the rallying cry "Deus Vult!" or "God wills it!"

ANSWER: Pope Urban II (accept Odo of Châtillon; accept Otho de Lagery; prompt on partial answer)

(3) This country's first president, Guadalupe Victoria, was among only a few of its early leaders to complete a full term. One president of this nation engineered an eighth term as president in 1910, leading to his overthrow by Francisco Madero and a ten-year civil war. Benito Juárez [[HWAH-rehz]] governed this country, but was overthrown by an Austrian archduke. Emperor Maximilian was executed after failing to conquer, for ten points, what country where Cinco de Mayo commemorates a victory over France?

ANSWER: Mexico (accept United Mexican States, Mexican Empire, or Estados Unidos Mexicanos)

BONUS: The First French Intervention in Mexico is nicknamed for what type of baked confectionary? A chef of this specific type of food complained to the French government after Mexican soldiers looted his shop, leading to the intervention.

ANSWER: Pastry (or Pastries; accept Pastry War; or Guerra de los pasteles; or Guerre des Pâtisseries)

(4) John Boehner [[BAY-ner]] resigned from this position in 2015 following a speech from Pope Francis the day prior. This position is second in the U.S. line of succession following the vice president. The current holder of this position represents the 12th District of California and went viral for a GIF of her clapping at Donald Trump in 2019. For ten points, name this elected leader of the lower chamber of the U.S. Congress, which is currently held by Nancy Pelosi.

ANSWER: Speaker of the House of Representatives

BONUS: The First Speaker of the House was Frederick Muhlenberg, whose inaccurate "legend" claims that he stopped what European language from becoming the official tongue of the United States?

ANSWER: German (or Deutsch)

(5) During the 1904 Olympic iteration of one of these events in St. Louis, Cuban mailman Andarín Carvajal [[kar-vah-HAHL]] took a nap after breaking a forty hour fast by eating rotten apples. The Chechen-descended Tsarnaev [[zar-"NIGH"-yef]] brothers targeted the 2013 Boston iteration of these sporting events by using homemade bombs. The legendary run of Pheidippides [[fy-DIH-peh-deez]] from a battle site to Athens inspired, for ten points, what long-distance running events?

ANSWER: Marathons (accept Olympic marathon; accept Boston marathon; accept Battle of Marathon; prompt on more generic answers like "long distance running" before mentioned)

BONUS: The first Africans to compete in the Olympics were Tsawana [[sah-WAH-nah]] tribesmen from what is today this nation who ran in the 1904 Marathon. Other athletes from this nation include golfer Gary Player and disgraced runner Oscar Pistorius.

ANSWER: Republic of South Africa (accept RSA)

(6) This island attempted to secede from one country after the "Grito de Lares" [[GREE-toh deh LAH-rehs]]. This non-Cuban island was controlled by the Spanish since the defeat of the native Taíno [[tah-EE-noh]] by Juan Ponce de León, who became this island's first governor. This island became a "Commonwealth" in 1952, and movements for full integration and independence have competed since then. For ten points, name this Caribbean territory of the United States, a potential 51st state.

ANSWER: Commonwealth of Puerto Rico (accept Estado Libre Asociado de Puerto Rico; or Boriken; or Borinquen)

BONUS: This island west of Puerto Rico was the site of the first European settlement in the New World, La Navidad, as well as the first permanent settlement, Santo Domingo.

ANSWER: Hispaniola (or La Española; or Ispayola; or Ayiti; do not accept or prompt on "Dominican Republic" or "Haiti")

(7) This region's eastern part was split off as the Union Territory of Ladakh, and its northernmost frontiers, far from its capital Srinagar, are governed as Gilgit-Baltistan [[GIL-git BAHL-tee-stahn]]. This region's inhabitants were separated after a 1947 war that reflected tensions between its Maharaja Hari Singh and this region's majority-Muslim population. With a Line of Control between two parts of this region ending at the Siachen [[see-AH-chen]] Glacier, for ten points, what is this region which is disputed by India and Pakistan?

ANSWER: Kashmir (accept Jammu and Kashmir Valley)

BONUS: This province to the south of Kashmir was similarly divided by India and Pakistan, albeit peacefully, and is home to the world's largest population of Sikhs, as well as the cities of Amritsar [[AM-rit-sar]] and Lahore [[lah-HOR]].

ANSWER: Punjab (accept Panjāb)

(8) This country's 1960 independence was established by the London and Zürich Agreements. One leader of this country survived four assassination attempts and was given the title "Ethnarch." This country, whose first president was Makarios III [[mah-KAHR-yohss the THIRD]], pursued a union with a larger country in a process called Enosis [[ee-NOH-siss]]. This country's north has been occupied since 1973 by Turkey and is divided by the Green Line. For ten points, name this island nation, controlled successively by the Ottomans and Great Britain, in the eastern Mediterranean.

ANSWER: Republic of Cyprus (or Kypriaki Dimokratia; or Kibris Cumhuriyeti; accept Kypros)

BONUS: It has been suggested that the word "Cyprus" derives from the Sumerian word for this metal, which was found in abundance on the island.

ANSWER: Copper (or Cu)

Third Quarter

The categories are:

1. Qing Dynasty
2. The Treaty of Versailles
3. The Aztec Empire

Qing Dynasty

Concerning the Qing [[CHING]] Dynasty of 1644 to 1912, name the...

(1) Massive country which it controlled.

ANSWER: China (accept Empire of China or Imperial China; accept Zhōngguó)

(2) Resource-rich region of Northeast Asia where the Qing dynasty originated.

ANSWER: Manchuria (accept Manchu; or Manchurians; accept Dōngsānshěng; or Guangdong; accept Jurchens)

(3) Two wars named for a narcotic, both victories for the British Empire over the Qing.

ANSWER: Opium Wars

(4) Last native dynasty destabilized by internal rebellion and overthrown by the Qing.

ANSWER: Ming Dynasty

(5) Last emperor of the Qing who was placed on the throne of the Japanese puppet state, Manchukuo [[MAN-CHOO-KWOH]].

ANSWER: Emperor Puyi (accept Henry Puyi; accept Xuantong Emperor; accept Yaozhi)

(6) Rebellion launched by civil servant Hong Xiuquan [[SHOO-CHWAN]], who attempted to found a Heavenly Kingdom.

ANSWER: Taiping Rebellion (or Taiping Civil War; or Taiping Revolution)

(7) "Dowager Empress" who controlled the Qing government through the Hundred Days Reform and died in 1908.

ANSWER: Cixi [[SEE-SHEE]] (or Empress Dowager Cixi; or Cíxī Tàihòu)

(8) 1911 Revolution that collapsed Qing rule, resulting in the disastrous rise of Yuan Shikai.

ANSWER: Xinhai Revolution

The Treaty of Versailles

During the signing of the Treaty of Versailles, name the...

(1) War the treaty officially ended.

ANSWER: World War One (or the First World War)

(2) Nation once led by Wilhelm [[VIHL-helm]] II that signed the treaty with the Allies.

ANSWER: Germany (accept German Empire; accept Weimar Germany)

(3) Intergovernmental body and predecessor to the United Nations which was created at Versailles.

ANSWER: League of Nations (accept Société des Nations)

(4) U.S. president who attended the Treaty of Versailles, forming the Big Three with David Lloyd George and Georges Clemenceau [[cleh-mehn-SOH]].

ANSWER: Woodrow Wilson (or Thomas Woodrow Wilson)

(5) Earlier treaty signed by Germany with Soviet Russia, overturned at Versailles.

ANSWER: Treaty of Brest-Litovsk

(6) International free city set up next to the Polish Corridor.

ANSWER: Danzig (or Gdańsk)

(7) Country that received the port of Qingdao [[CHING-DOW]] in the treaty, triggering the May 4th Movement in another country.

ANSWER: Empire of Japan (or Nippon)

(8) Region of western Germany separated by the treaty and made a League of Nations mandate until 1935.

ANSWER: Saarland

The Aztec Empire

Concerning the Aztec Empire, name the...

(1) Empire whose conquistador Hernán Cortés collapsed the Aztec empire.

ANSWER: Kingdom of Spain (or Reino de España (accept Spanish Empire)

(2) Final major emperor of the Aztecs, who may have been killed by a rock thrown by his own subject.

ANSWER: Moctezuma II (accept Montezuma II; accept Moctezuma Xocoyotzin; accept any close approximation of Moctezuma such as Motecuhzomatzin)

(3) Capital city, later the site of Mexico City, which was built on an island within Lake Texcoco.

ANSWER: Tenochtitlan [[teh-nohch-TEET-lahn]]

(4) Language spoken as a lingua franca in the Aztec Empire.

ANSWER: Nahuatl [[nah-HWAH-teel]]

(5) "Great Temple" dedicated to the bloody war god Huitzilopochtli [[hweet-see-loh-"POACH"-tlee]], where many sacrifices were performed.

ANSWER: Templo Mayor (accept Hueteocalli)

(6) Ritual wars fought between the Aztec and their tributaries to collect sacrifices for the gods.

ANSWER: Flowery Wars (or Xōchiyāōyōtl; or Guerra Florida)

(7) Agricultural innovation used to grow crops on the shallow beds of bodies of water.

ANSWER: Chinampas

(8) Aztec term for city-states that retained local leaders but swore fealty to the emperor.

ANSWER: Altepetl [[ahl-teh-PEH-tul]]

Fourth Quarter

(1) The negotiation of the Suez Crisis was done by a diplomat from this political party, Lester Pearson. The Shawinigan [[shah-WEH-neh-gehn]] (+) Handshake, which was a chokehold against a protestor by a leader of this party, occurred during anti-poverty protests in Gatineau [[gah-tee-NOW]], Quebec. Pierre and Justin (*) Trudeau both served as leaders of, for ten points, which Canadian political party, the traditional opponents of the Conservatives?

ANSWER: Liberal Party of Canada (accept Parti libéral du Canada)

(2) The initial plans for the construction of this building were created by the Bethlehem Engineering Corporation which wanted to build an office complex at the site of a Waldorf-Astoria hotel. To complete this project, one of its investors, John J. Raskob, (+) obtained a $27.5 million loan from the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company during the Great Depression. From 1931 to the completion of the World (*) Trade Center in 1970, this building held the title of "tallest in the world." For ten points, name this 102-story Art Deco skyscraper in midtown Manhattan.

ANSWER: Empire State Building

(3) Near the end of his life, this man prepared the defense of Gibraltar after it was threatened by the Castilian king Alfonso XI [[the eleventh]]. This Berber's sixteen month hajj to Mecca continued as he joined a caravan aiming to trade within the Il-khanate. The (*) travelogue known informally as The Rihla recounts this man's visit to Yuan China, the Swahili Coast, and the Indian subcontinent. (*) For ten points, name this medieval Moroccan explorer who traveled over ten times as far as Marco Polo.

ANSWER: Ibn Battuta (accept Abu Abdullah Muhammad ibn Battuta)

(4) A woman named Dorothy Householder was the lone fatality in a July 1974 bombing at this site. In 1952, the Kray twins were arrested after assaulting an officer at this location. Built on the order of William (+) the Conqueror, this building was where Edward V was kept after he was declared illegitimate. Sir Walter Raleigh was (*) imprisoned in this building that also held Anne Boleyn. For ten points, name this fortress and former prison that now houses Britain's Crown Jewels.

ANSWER: Tower of London (or Her Majesty's Royal Palace and Fortress of the Tower of London)

(5) Young Turk Enver Pasha ordered this city's "September Days," a series of anti-Armenian pogroms committed by the "Army of Islam." A part of the larger "Case Blue," Operation Edelweiss [[AY-del-vice]] (+) was a Wehrmacht [[VARE-mahkt]] advance meant to cripple the Soviet petroleum supply by capturing this city's (*) oilfields. For ten points, which Caspian port city was made capital of independent Azerbaijan following the dissolution of the USSR?

ANSWER: Baku (or Baki)

(6) At the end of this text, a man travels to reach a rainbow-colored Spindle of Necessity, where Ananke [[ah-NAHN-keh]], or Necessity, hands out tokens for a lottery. This text discusses a king of Lydia [[LIH-dee-ah]] who possessed a ring that grants (+) invisibility. The Myth of Er and Ring of Gyges [[GY-jeez]] appear in this text, which posits a group of men who confuse shadows on a wall for reality in its Allegory of the (*) Cave. Socrates speaks on the ideal "philosopher-king" who rules the state in, for ten points, what dialogue on government by Plato?

ANSWER: *The Republic (or Politeia; or *De Republica; or *Plato's Republic)

(7) This figure was supposedly the ancestor of the Dorian invaders, including the Agiads [[ah-JEE-ids]] and Eurypontids [[yoo-rih-PON-tids]], whose dynasties co-ruled as kings of Sparta. The legendary progenitor of those dynasties, Hyllus [[HEE-lus]], was this man's son by Deianira [[dy-ah-NEE-rah]]. (+) One bust of this figure identifies him with the Emperor Commodus [[KAH-moh-duss]], and a statue found in Mathura [[mah-THOO-rah]], India depicts this man slaying the Nemean [[neh-MEE-an]] (*) Lion. For ten points, name this performer of Twelve Labors from Greek mythology.

ANSWER: Heracles (accept Hercules)

(8) J.A. Wayland gave this work early exposure by publishing it serially in his socialist paper, Appeal to Reason. This work, which aimed to unveil poor working conditions in Chicago, (+) led to its author claiming "[he] aimed at the public's heart and by accident [he] hit it in the stomach." The passage of the Pure (*) Food and Drug Act was partially motivated by, for ten points, which muckraking exposé of the meatpacking industry written by Upton Sinclair?

ANSWER: *The Jungle

Extra Question

(1) A ceremonial bronze example of one of these objects was found in the River Thames [[TEMZ]] near Battersea. The aspis type of these objects were also called (*) hoplons, and a squared version called a scuta was used by the Romans. These items, which use a strap called a guige [[GEE]], can be found in heater, kite, and tower (*) varieties. For ten points, name these pieces of armor held in the hand, historically used to protect from sword or spear strikes.

ANSWER: shield (accept specific shield types like hoplon, kite shield, etc. before mentioned)

BONUS: This period of history was characterized by metalworking, urban civilization, and early forms of writing. This period of history suffered a "collapse" in the eastern Mediterranean around 1200 BC.

ANSWER: Bronze Age (accept Bronze Age Collapse)